

Team 5

Caroline Blanks

Instructor

About me:

Born in LaGrange, GA, Caroline began dancing and competing at the age of two. At 14, she started training at The Lafayette School of Ballet, where she competed until 2019. Throughout her competitive career, Caroline won titles across the Southeast. She had lead roles in various ballet productions, including The Nutcracker, Swan Lake, Cinderella, Sleeping Beauty, and more. She began assisting dance and acrobatics at 14, and eventually became the competition director for the Royal Academy School of Dance.

Caroline graduated from the University of Georgia in 2023 and currently attends UGA's law school. She is the assistant studio manager and mini competition director at The Studio Athens. Caroline also was recently crowned Miss Magnolia 2024 and will be competing at Miss Georgia in June.