I'm dancing because...

I can think of no greater cause than to support Project Safe and help break the cycle of domestic violence. Feeling safe in one's own home and surroundings is essential for physical and mental well-being and has a compounding impact on generations to come.

Paul Brooks serves as Associate Vice President for Public Service & Outreach (PSO) at the University of Georgia. He works to connect UGA's schools and colleges with PSO's state-wide network of outreach programs. Previously, Paul was Assistant Dean for Outreach in the College of Pharmacy. During his almost 30 years at UGA and in his previous roles in academia, association management, and as a hospital pharmacist he has worked to incorporate a service mind-set into all aspects of his job and personal life. Paul enjoys anything outside and also teaches yoga and qigong.
